DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On January 23, 2020, Mark Chase, statutory beneficiary of Barbara Pauley-Chase, deceased, ("Petitioner") filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that his wife, Ms. Pauley-Chase, suffered from Guillain-Barre syndrome as a result of pneumococcal conjugate and influenza vaccines received on October 17, 2018, and that she subsequently died on December 22, 2018, as a result of her vaccine related condition. (Petition at 1). On October 18, 2021, a decision was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the Respondent's proffer. (ECF No. 49).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated December 9, 2021, (ECF No. 56), requesting a total award of $16,368.62 (representing $13,860.00 in fees and $2,508.62 in costs). In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that Petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. (ECF No. 54). Respondent reacted to the motion on December 15, 2021, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, and defers resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. (ECF No. 57). Petitioner filed a reply on December 17, 2021, requesting that the Court award all fees and costs requested in Petitioner's application. (ECF No. 58).

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $16,368.62 (representing $13,860.00 in fees and $2,508.62 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
